

Please do not remove rules and regulations regarding what is able to be viewed. I believe television has a great (large) impact on how children think and view the world. They do not need to see or hear more vulgarity than they already do in the real world.