

I strongly oppose relaxing current FCC indecency standards. Sexually suggestive programming and the tolerance of obscene language in the media give credence to the destructive belief that 'anything goes.' Instead, please use your authority and influence in a manner that promotes self-control and respectful behavior.