

I oppose making changes to the current FCC decency standards. The FCC MUST follow current guidelines, and enforce the standards against ALL indecent content. even "brief or fleeting" indecent content is unacceptable. The Supreme Court has affirmed the FCC's duty to enforce decent broadcast content of programs. Relaxing decency policies would NOT serve the public interest. I urge the FCC to reject proposals allowing broadcast of expletives or nudity on FCC-licensed stations.