

There is already an excessive amount of vulgarity and sexual innuendo on public broadcasting networks. Allowing isolated incidents of nudity or profanity is unconscionable. Our government should be about protecting society from harmful behavior, which I strongly believe these proposed changes are.

Please keep the current policy in effect and do not succumb to pressure from Hollywood to undermine common decency standards.