

Please continue to censure sex, violence, and cursing on the air waves. More strict codes should be in place. American Families do not want this in their homes while children are watching and listening.