

Please continue to uphold the standard of moral decency by blocking profanity and nudity from radio and television broadcasts received by adults and children alike. Otherwise the effects will be emotionally damaging to all ages and faiths, and will open a floodgate of indecency, depravity, and moral turpitude onto our society that will corrupt beyond description. Thank you.