

Please consider modifying the language that is used on television and the rating system used for movies. I was a public school teacher for 24 years and felt verbally abused by the constant onslaught of F- You that the students said in high school. Though television is not the only form of entertainment that this mosaic generation of electronics uses, one less medium to encourage or use vulgarity as acceptable would be helpful.

I quit teaching partially because of that kind of verbal abuse and it is abuse. Stand in the hallways of my school for one day and you will hear - it is very sad and emotionally distressful.
