

I oppose any loosening of the FCC regulations barring obscenity and nudity on the radio and television. It's hard enough to find programming suitable for family viewing as it is today, we don't need to give the media free reign to pollute the airwaves anymore than they are already doing.