

Please do not weaken indecency standards. My children deserve to be able to flip through television channels without hearing the f-word, the s-word, and without seeing female frontal nudity.

Thank you.