

I am opposed to all censorship although I believe enough info about a particular show's content should be available to a parent so that he/she can decide if the show is suitable for his/her child.

Please relax the ridiculous current rules that prohibit even brief or fleeting nudity or profanity.