

From
Dr. Lauren Palmateer, PhD Electrical Engineering
646 Laguna Street
San Francisco CA 94102
3/6/2013

Dear FCC,

In regards to the public requesting for more review and aid to the technical and health aspects of the regulations for wireless and RF energy allowed in the public, this is my recommendation:

The allowable levels are too high, the biological effects of non thermal and not address properly. Electro sensitivity is addressed by other countries. The US is behind. Catch up and do a proper review.

Best wishes,
Lauren Palmateer