

It is insulting and sickening that the FCC is even thinking about changing the policy for prime time programming to allow material that is offensive to parents and more importantly the children of the USA! Why is this even considered? Stop now before all of the families of the country boycott tv and begin to demand internet tv fill the void!!!!