

I am notifying you that I do not want nudity or profanity on network television. It is difficult enough to find decent shows for family viewing. Please uphold the current decency boundaries and do not loosen the standards.