

I grew up at a time when my parents never had to quickly turn the TV off due to profanity, nudity, sex, etc. I had to monitor what my children would see as they were growing up, and now it is a full time job to monitor what my grandchildren see on TV.....even commercials are indecent. Please make TV officials abide by a stricter level of ethics, decency, etc.