

I am outraged that you are even considering this proposal. It's enough that we have to put up with porn on our major tv channels during prime time. Maybe a suit against the major media for a significant amount of compensation for immorality will get their attention.