

As a grandparent of elementary school children, I'm concerned about nudity/porn, violence, and profanity in the media and on the playgrounds. Please do not expand exposure of these problems on the networks while children are watching.