

I do not agree with the proposal to have fleeting nudity and profanity on the major broadcast stations during prime time. Children are already exposed to many sources of indecent material and opening a major source of entertainment to this type of material reduces the parents ability to instill their values and morals on their children. Let us support the parents who make the effort to screen the information their children are receiving while promoting family values and a high moral standard.