

Please don't lift the band on the decency of our local TV channels. We already have to watch women kissing women & men kissing men on shows like Grey's Anatomy & Scandal. Some of us are really trying to bring our children up in a Christian home to one day become great & powerful citizens of America. Remember that our children are our future. Thx...