

Our children already have too much access to profanity on the their day to day life without allowing it on television. Also, why are you allowing taking the Lord's name in vain? I don't understand why all this stuff is allowed for our children to hear..