

when I grew up all we had was a small black and white TV screen (earlie 50's) we had no cam corders, iphones ,ipods, computers, satellite TV, email, paperless billing, on line this and on line that.
And guess what????? Most of my generation has turned out okay. What the FCC will do if his is passed is make it much more possible for future generaions to enter into Hell.
All the media is doing is condoning the actions of the moneydogs. Because of the three major networks, parants are generally out voted.
