

If it's that important to have 'cuss words' and 'nudity' on the telly, please at least 'wait' till after 11 p.m. That way, especially during commercials, I/we won't have my/our 6/7 year olds ask me/us.. 'why is that lady/man naked. Or having to deal with the 'F' bomb being dropped while watching a 'kid friendly' show!.. Really, all that is for 'Adult' usage anyways!.. The kids will learn this stuff, no doubt, but, it doesn't have to be crammed down thier throats at such a young age!!.. Thank you, Dana Bradford
