

We are for maintaining standards of decency on prime time TV. We have grandchildren whom we love and want to keep their minds from excess and unnecessary exposure to adult content TV. Thank you for standing with our children and their parents and grandparents.