

We are writing to encourage the FCC to maintain the highest standards possible with regard to television programming. We feel that children need to be protected in their homes from foul language and other inappropriate content. We believe that safeguarding them when they are young will prevent problems when they are older. Please help us in this effort to protect children.

Sincerely,

Paige & Joe Nemrow