

To the Secret Service.....maybe the smart thing for Glenn and Lynn would apply for readmission to college in Yuma. Glenn and Lynn last attended college in the summer of 1996, and has never attended another college since then. Then Glenn and Lynn might continue their BA in German.

The issues of Bans of Ban Ana's.... The Alamo and Santa Ana....It is understandable why some would pull the Ban Ana at certain colleges. It doesn't bother me that these people who banned me seem to be local heroes in their respective communities, and seem to be the toast of the town (If the blind lead the blind, they shall both fall into the ditch....Christ said, let them alone.) It's not a racial thing either. Sin occurs regardless of skin color, and God rains upon and blesses the good and bad alike. Yes, I plead not guilty in court to a misdemeanor, and they convicted me without a trial (aka Jones)....

Glenn and Lynn still trust God. And to prove it's not a racial thing, Glenn is aware that it is mainly these white males with their white females in certain southern states that are spewing out their vicious hate towards Glenn, and demanding Glenn's head.

The tornados have convinced Glenn that Glenn wants nothing more to do with those people. Those that tried to hurt Glenn the most got the biggest promotions at those schools. Favres nudity should be jail without bail.

It's the Holy ones with the Keys to The Kingdom of Heaven that are denied bail.

The sheriffs intimidated federal officers, yet the feds still seem intimidated not to bring that 2005 Katrina Shelby Fed case to trial.

It's not a racial thing. An African American pirate banned me from that college, then goes on to become a hero at all his school. Another pirate (Pearl River DA arrested for bribing state witnesses)...The white pirate DA gets a job as legal advisor at that college, and is treated as a hero.

I am aware that these white males who tried to kill me in Dixie have white female girlfriends and wives that are spewing out just as much hatred towards me....

****

So is it smart for me to apply to college.

****

Yes, I wish I had stayed west in 1996 and finished there. I really really wished I had stayed at summer school in 1996 out west, and never met those people in Dixie (actually, my story and bio about those events are still evolving in my head)

****

God tells me to love my enemies, so Glenn's duty is to love his enemies in Dixie....

****

I need to walk a fine line about professing Christ and criticizing those Dixie people...
God have mercy. God Loves....
