

I strongly oppose the loosening of public decency standards. I call on the FCC to take seriously its duty to enforce federal law, 18 U. S. C. 1464, limiting indecency and profanity on the publicly owned airwaves to times of day when children are much less likely to be in the audience.