

I support changes in the language and nudity restrictions under consideration. A reasonable time outside of when a pre-teen would be expected to be watching, say 8:00 P.M. may want to be enforced, but otherwise let the market place determine what the public is willing to support. People can vote with their wallet by not purchasing advertized products or media services. We cannot pretend that sexuality does not exist.