

Rough draft-these messages should stop soon from Glenn. Glenn should and needs to worship God almighty more, and stop writing these messages electronically.

Gist of some thoughts, could be more articulate.

First of all, Glenn needs to be more careful about his now common-often ridicule that seems to occur in some of his writings. These people in courts are not Glenn enemies, law and authority is Good, and is there for a reason.

These people in the South aren't necessarily Glenn's enemies, they have jobs to do, and sarcastically speaking, even if there are Pirates in the universities as Deans, the Bible says to love even our enemies. And I just sort of tested my limits with God by calling some of my past acquaintances pirates. I apologize for using the term pirate.

If these people hate Glenn, and Glenn in return hates them, then in the eyes of God, both sides are guilty of hate, so it sort of even outs. Christ said to love each other, and Glenn knows God and Christ search the reigns of our hearts and soul, so words alone may not be enough. In the bible, Christ says they honor him (Christ) with their mouths, but their heart is far from him. Glenn needs to be careful his heart is right, and not just talk.

In downtown, there is a building and company called XO communications, and the slogan of course is "X- not just talk".

The sinister side of course being that these people aren't just verbally talking about immoral sex acts, they are actually carrying them out. Or they aren't just talking about breaking God's laws about sex, they are actually doing it.

On the good side of "x-not just talk", Glenn can't just talk the talk about being clean about sex and purity, he actually has to lead his life of pure thoughts and purity. And God knows my heart, whether my thoughts are pure.

The beltline and belt issue. Glenn went to high school like everyone else, and today 2013, society dictates that he is supposed to be going to the fancy restaurants every night, drinking drunk, and fornicating.

Glenn aloofness around females, and awkwardness around females, and shyness, and luck, and God's hand in Glenn life, has kept Glenn's belt on for the most part, not Glenn's willingness himself. Sinful Glenn might want to do the Brazil Olympic Carnival 2016, but luck, and God's hand in Glenn's life keeps Glenn's belt on for the most part.

The treasure of course about the belt, is not the flesh or body parts that Glenn thinks is a treasure the treasure is that Glenn has the control over keeping his belt on at this appropriate time. It's easy for Glenn because he is alone in the sense of not being married and Glenn does not have a girlfriend, nor has he ever had one. For others, Glenn is aware that they may or may not be in a certain relationship where sex is expected.

(the Bible we all have sinful flesh).

The problem is fornication, and Glenn knows one of the 10 commandments is though shall not covet thy neighbors wife. If God is to give Glenn a gift in Heaven, God probably wants Glenn to demonstrate he can live fruitfully not coveting they neighbors wife. the fornication problem is this, and Glenn is no better or no worse than those who fornicate.

My ridicule in yesterday's letter is a very grave sin in the eyes of God. Sin is sin, whether it's one act of fornication, or dropping an a-bomb on Thailand to rescue the sex slaves. Sin is sin, it's not necessarily the magnitude.

Glenn has thought for many years that fornication meant sexual intercourse. But I later learned it meant sexual intercourse between non married persons.

The problem of fornication is this. Eventually fornication and/or fornicators will come knocking at your and my door, expecting that they will have a right to fornicate with your wife, girlfriend, daughter, husband, son, or brother or sister.

God's laws are there for a reason. The fornication thing is a problem, and Glenn is no better or no worse in the eyes of fornicators, though he has never fornicated.
