

Please maintain the ban against four letter words and any foul language as well as against nudity on television. Our country needs good morals and proper boundaries that reflect decent values for our children and grandchildren.

Adult Americans appreciate knowing that they can turn on their televisions and not invite obscene guests to enter their family living rooms to intrude unwelcome into their family lives. Please stand up and be a voice for us.

Thank you.