

Please do not allow explicit profanity and nudity on network television. As a father and grandfather I do not believe there is value in changing these standards and can only cause further moral damage to a nation already willing to trample longstanding moral standards.