

I strongly disagree with the proposition to relax restrictions on sex and profanity on television, especially during the hours that children would be watching. If anything, I would like to see more stringent regulations set forth to shield our children from this. I hope that you will reconsider this proposition.