

This is not acceptable. The FCC needs to move vulgarity, sex, extreme violence, and this include innuendos to all of these back to pay for cable stations such as HBO, ShowTime, etc. It has gotten to the point I can't even let my kids set down and watch an old western with me because I am afraid of what is going to be on the commercials.

Do not change these regulations...in fact change them to make them stricter not more lenient.

Thank you,

William A. Camp