

FCC Complaint:

It is outrageous that the FCC allows worthless trash content to be broadcast on television at any hour. Everyone knows that impressionable teens and children are often able to watch television late at night. They should not be presented with images, ideas, words that can easily corrupt their minds. The effects of such exposure is evident everywhere, with teens swearing, having sex, and adopting destructive morals and values. I demand that you ban such worthless trash, not increase it!

Ronald D. Schlegel

Raleigh, NC