

There's an enormous amount of TV content that I find problematic, offensive or even harmful to my children and grandchildren. The broadcast indecency law is only meant to deal with the worst of the worst TV and radio content to begin with and now this proceeding will make that much worse. Stop this nonsense and do your job of protecting the airwaves from becoming a bigger cesspool than it already is.