

I respectfully request that you do NOT lower the current standards for nudity and foul language during times that are considered "family" viewing. Those who wish to see more can tune into cable, it should NOT be freely available on public broadcast channels.