

I have no idea if this comment is under the correct proceeding but I am commenting anyway. Please do not allow even more profanity and indecency on television than is already on it. I am appalled that it would even be a consideration. How crass and crude does America have to become before we yell ENOUGH???? For our children and grandchildren's sake, let's stop while we still have a shred (and it is only a shred) of decency left. Thanks for taking my comment.
