

To the FCC:

Please do not allow more nudity or foul language to be broadcast over the air waves in any form.

I would think as a nation, we can see how it is damaging our country and individual lives. I don't think people understand how important it is for all ages to be surrounded by positive and moral views of life. Please say no to the money hungry firms pursuing such a obvious harmful thing.

Sincerely,

Jay Hutson