

To Whom It May Concern:

In regards to lifting restrictions on vulgar language and lewd content during "prime time" viewing hours, please do not.

I am a father of 3 children and we enjoy a good show on an evening here and there. To allow this content during these hours would be vulgar and lewd.

I understand that TV content producers are probably asking to lift the restrictions so they can "express themselves". You need to ask yourself this question, why do we have these restrictions in the first place? As an old African Proverb goes, don't tear down a fence unless you know why it was built. These restrictions were put into place to at least protect some thread of moral decency in our society. That was good enough when the generation before us made these regulations. It is just as right now as it was then.

Please at least keep these regulations to help maintain moral decency.

Sincerely,
