

The media that is available to our children is already crude enough, they do not need to have more sex/violence/crude behavior in front of their faces!