

I vehemently oppose any changes to the current FCC broadcast indecency policies. Our children are exposed to too much foul language, sex and nudity already, especially through the internet, why in the world would you seek to increase that?