

I believe the government should relax or do away with the current indecency rules. Parents should have the responsibility to govern what is watched in their house not the government. Less government not more.