

I do not agree with allowing more nudity or bad language on our TV shows. Not only for my kids sake but for mine and my husbands. We enjoy the prime time shows such as Rules of Engagement, Big Bang Theory, etc; however, we sometimes are disgusted by what is allowed on these types of shows. We quit watching Two and a Half Men because of the filth. Constant filth. While humorous sometimes we do not enjoy filling our minds with disgusting jokes constantly. How about use your skills and make something funny that isn't disgusting. Look at Duck Dynasty for an example of clean fun. And please don't expose my children to more vulgar behavior and language.
