

I am writing to ask that the FCC rethink its view on allowing more nudity and foul language on networks. Our society is over run already! Please help protect our children and families by not loosening the ratings to allow MORE on tv. Thank you, Jill