

Why are you allowing profanity, both verbal and physical on the internet? It is not only destroying our culture but our children in so very many ways. It has become almost impossible to protect our children from this garbage, and is making it almost impossible for them to hold onto their innocence !!
!!

We, and our friends, are absolutely furious. Is this garbage really what life is all about? Think about it
...