

I oppose profanity, nudity, and sexual activity on television. We stopped watching television because we didn't want our kids to be exposed to these. What goes into their ears and eyes influences who they become. Please bring back programs that have good, family values.