

Please do not subvert public decency laws on television. There is absolutely no reason to allow inappropriate content on during prime time. As a community, a should protect our children, a child could be watching a totally fine show and turn the channel to garbage? Let's protect our children, not throw raunchiness and base behavior at them. It is your job as a government entity to protect our children. Please do so.

sincerely,

janelle Beauchemin