

Why do you think that the culture in America sees so much violence, teen pregnancies, abortions, bullying, disrespectful behavior, flawed personal character?

The behavior and character of America's youth is directly and profoundly influenced by what they see, hear and read -Especially by what they watch on television - either at time of airing or later, watching a recording of the TV program.

Urge the FCC not to reduce the standards of decency for programs broadcast over public air waves, but to actively enforce stringent standards of decency.
