

Gentlemen:

I sincerely oppose any additional leniency in the moral standards of of daytime or nighttime TV.

This is also a complaint on what I and my family are presently exposed to. In my opinion, the present standards are contributing to many of our present day social problems.