

Secretary Dortch,

please change my captioncall phone back the way it was before. I am missing parts of conversations because I have to turn the captions on every time.

having the caption call turned off on every call is very inconvenient and frustrating. this was a bad decision obviously made by someone who does not have hearing impairment. Mona Twocats-Romero