

It is of the utmost importance that the FCC continue to protect our children from unrestricted indecent broadcasts by not changing its current laws on enforcement of decency standards by financial penalties. Our children are our future. Please FCC, hold the line. Don't compromise our future