

Please re-generate a sense of moral identity of decency for America without influence from sinister "special interest" agendi of forcing their depraved obsessions on our youth as well as general population.